

ABA: 68545935

Pir

A blue brain scan image, possibly a PET or SPECT scan, showing a cross-section of a brain. The image is overlaid with a white grid consisting of two vertical and two horizontal lines, dividing the image into four quadrants. The brain tissue is represented in shades of blue, with some areas appearing brighter than others, indicating varying levels of activity or concentration. The overall shape of the brain is roughly oval, with a central vertical groove (sulcus) visible.