

ABA: 68744534

S0

An axial brain scan image with a blue highlighted region. The image is divided into four quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal white line. The blue region is located in the posterior part of the brain, primarily in the right hemisphere (viewer's left) and extending slightly into the midline. The rest of the brain is shown in grayscale.