

ABA: 71587661

Cb lobe

A coronal brain scan image with a blue highlighted region. The highlighted area is located in the posterior part of the brain, specifically in the cerebellar lobe. It has a somewhat irregular, butterfly-like shape with a central vertical gap. The rest of the brain and the background are black. A white crosshair is visible, with the vertical line passing through the center of the highlighted region.